

Alternative Technology Association's Sustainable House Open Day

Sunday, September 17, 2017 10.00am - 4.00pm

For information and inspiration, visit "Clearwind", Glenhope
(between Kyneton and Heathcote)

- Solar electricity
- Solar hot water
- Wood-fired cooking and baking
- Water- and space- heating
- Draught-proofing
- Secondary glazing
- Compost toilet
- Water self-sufficiency
- Worm farm and composting systems
- Self-sufficiency in vegetables and fruit
- Rammed earth shed
- Indigenous understory seed orchard

- there will be tours of house, food production areas and rammed earth shed every half hour
- our grandsons, Sam and Thomas, will be delivering "pop up" workshops on sustainable living topics
- Katie and Hugh Finlay, of Grow Great Fruit, will be giving (free) workshops on home-growing of organic fruit at 11am and 12pm
- there will be detailed displays on various aspects of sustainable living to browse
- refreshments will be available all day
- gold coin donation for entry and all sales will go to Sanfilippo Children's Foundation

Further information, address, directions and for registration visit

<https://sustainablehouseday.com> or call 03 9631 5421